

Written Endorsement by Webs, Inc. for the Community Application for .WEBS

This document has been produced in the framework of the Response to Question 20 (f) of ICANN's Application produced by Vistaprint Limited and contains a written endorsements for the Application.

In our respective capacities as founders of Webs, Inc., we hereby endorse the Community Application for .WEBS by Vistaprint Limited.

We have been creating a community of Webs users and stakeholders learning by doing and learning from each other through an interactive internet forum environment. We started the community initiative in 2005 by investing in online tools through which Webs members could share their experiences and comment. The community initiative is existing thanks to the platforms and services provided by Webs, Inc.

Webs, Inc. was acquired by Vistaprint Limited in December 2011. Webs, Inc.

We are prepared to provide more information on the Webs community and our link to the community, should this be required.
