Dear Mr. Ertler,

Following our last meeting as well as the further project explanations I would like to confirm our support to your initiative to apply with your company to ICANN for license of the .IMMO generic top-level domain dedicated to the community of real estate professionals in Europe.

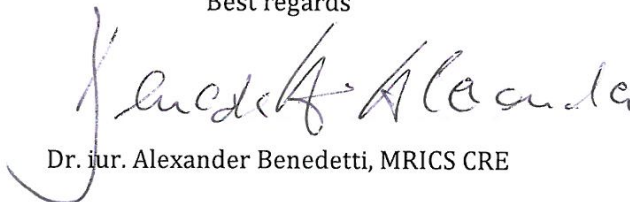

You can rely on our intentions to support the new top level domain as developed by Eresnet GmbH and Starting DOT in the context of ICANN new gTLDs programme.

We are looking forward with attention receiving the invitation to participate to the future sunrise sales.

Please be assured that our company will look forward giving continuity working with you in your effort to apply and to receive from ICANN the delegation of the .IMMO top level domain.

I wish you best luck for the current process of application and I would appreciate very much if you could keep me up to date.

Best regards

Dr. iur. Alexander Benedetti, MRICS CRE
