

Q29_attachment_table: List of policies on the handling of infringing acts

Categories of rights	Policies on domain name registration	Policies on complaints for domain name registration abuse	Policies on the handling of rights infringement
Trademark rights of enterprises	Registrants with trademark rights during the Sunrise Period enjoy priority in registration; Trademark notice will be sent to the prospective applicant to claim the trademark rights involved in the string during the first 60 days after launching registration with general availability.	Complainants may file complaints on phishing or lawsuits on domain name dispute in accordance with UDRP.	Disputes shall be resolved in accordance with UDRP or by URS provider or the court. Respective registrar need to assist dispute resolution provider to lock the domain name. If the complainant succeeds, the registrar needs to make further domain name suspension or transfer based on the final decision.
Right of geographic names	Names in this category are initially reserved. Registration of reserved country and geographic domain names shall be subject to verification by CNNIC and submission of proof of authorization;	The complainant shall have rights and interests in the use of the geographic name involved in the domain name for which complaint is filed;	Disputes shall be resolved in accordance with UDRP or by URS provider or the court. Respective registrar need to assist dispute resolution provider to lock the domain name. If the complainant succeeds, the registrar needs to make further domain name suspension or transfer based on the final decision.
Right to use the names of organizations subject to relevant provisions of the State on authorization	Names in this category are initially reserved. Registration of such organization or service name shall be subject to	Complainants may file complaints with regard to the use of domain names which involves libel or insult against	Disputes shall be resolved in accordance with UDRP or by URS provider or the court. Respective registrar need to assist dispute

Categories of rights	Policies on domain name registration	Policies on complaints for domain name registration abuse	Policies on the handling of rights infringement
	verification by CNNIC and submission of proof of authorization;	organizations authorized by the State or fraud in the name thereof;	resolution provider to lock the domain name. If the complainant succeeds, the registrar needs to make further domain name suspension or transfer based on the final decision.
Right to use the names of international organizations and activities thereof	Names in this category are initially reserved. Registration of reserved names of international organizations and activities thereof shall be subject to the submission of official proofs of authorization;	Complainants may file complaints with regard to the use of domain names which involves libel or insult against international organizations or fraud in the name thereof;	Disputes shall be resolved in accordance with UDRP or by URS provider or the court. Respective registrar need to assist dispute resolution provider to lock the domain name. If the complainant succeeds, the registrar needs to make further domain name suspension or transfer based on the final decision.
Public order and good morals	It is forbidden to use domain names for the dissemination of such contents as pornography and violence, which are in violation of the law;	Complainants may file complaints to the registry and 12321 center with regard to the use of domain names which involves the dissemination of such negative information as pornography, violence, terrorism and race discrimination;	CNNIC will notify the registrar to warn the respective registrant for their misconduct and tell them to make further corrections. The domain name which violates the law or infringes the public interests shall be suspend in accordance with the law
Privacy	N/A	Complainants may file complaints against the stealing of personal	Once the behavior is confirmed, CNNIC will notify the registrar to

Categories of rights	Policies on domain name registration	Policies on complaints for domain name registration abuse	Policies on the handling of rights infringement
		privacy by means of domain name phishing or the illicit usage of personal information by the registry or registrar.	warn the respective registrant for their misconduct of infringing other's privacy and tell them to make further corrections. The domain names which conduct illicit leakage or theft of confidential information and privacy shall be suspended in accordance with the law enforcement requirement. In case the registry or registrars carry out the misconduct of leak consumer's privacy, CNNIC will take further step to investigate the responsible personnel and enforcing penalty based on the misconduct.